8th

International Conference
Information Technology in Biomedicine

CALL FOR PAPERS

We cordially invite you to participate in the 8th International Conference on Information Technology in Biomedicine to be held in Kamień Śląski

Contributors from research centers and industry are welcome to present their original results at scientific sessions, posters, exhibits and unofficial meetings.

The call for papers is to solicit submissions for the oral and poster sessions which are designed to be highly interactive.

You are invited to share your research achievements with the international community by submitting a paper (up to 12 pages) by December 15, 2019.

For further information please consult our website

www.itib.edu.pl

Following our previous practice, the highest quality research contributions accepted for oral presentation will be evaluated by Program Committee and referred for publication in Special Issues of journals indexed in JCR.
